

Dear Shareholder,

In this magical world of stories, our journey began with a leap of faith. I still remember that moment when you started to believe in me and recognized my potential.

Garnering the courage to dream bigger, explore new horizons and keep in step with you, has been a result of our strong association. Every achievement in my journey carries the imprint of your faith and unwavering belief in what I can be. We have created more than moments and experiences; we have built a shared legacy.

Today, I want to further strengthen my commitment towards our association, staying true to the values I have embodied and boldly embracing the opportunities that tomorrow brings. This is a special moment for me, where I am dreaming bigger and I want to share it with you. Like you, I remain rooted in my values, but I aspire to touch the sky! I am approaching the future with confidence.

In this journey, you have not just invested in me, but you invested in the power of what could be. And I promise to continue turning this belief into reality, honouring the foundation we have built, as I reach for greater heights.

Yours Truly,
